FROM THE DESK OF FATHER BLANEY...

Leprechaun Hunt©

Hey – if you haven't come to a Leprechaun Hunt© yet, this is the year! August 3rd, I'm the one who hides the leprechauns. But I'm so out of breath and my knees bother me so much that the first one down the paths will find them if they only have 1/2 an eye. I just can't hide them like I used to! Added to that is the food. Oh, you're going to love the food. Lot's and lots of foin foods with 4 lines inside and plenty of hotdogs and hamburgers outside. Then there'll be two cool tents of continuous toe tapping and hand clapping Irish entertainment. By the way, I've been promised a very comfortable day for the Leprechaun Hunt©! There's plenty of hay wagons for rides – young and older.

This is a great Family Fun Day!! If you catch the tagged fish – it is worth $200. Again, the price is $40.00 for adults (over 18) with an advanced ticket. And seniors (65 and over) have a further discount - $35. At the gate there will be a charge of $45 for adults (over 18) and $40 for seniors (65 and over). Children 17 and younger when accompanied by parents or grandparents are free.

When you go to Great America, Disney Land, a major sports event, you would pay much more. And here the monies are for a really good cause! August 3rd we will begin parking cars at 11:00 a.m. – the Big Leprechaun Hunt starts at noon. Come and enjoy! Family Fun Day!! Bring your neighbors.

THOUGHTS FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

By Kathleen Kelly

The days are getting warmer, the school year is winding down and the start of our summer camp is just around the corner. Camper applications are arriving in the office daily along with calls from prospective campers requesting applications. Camp has always been a joyful time that many people look forward to each summer.

When I think back to what it was like when I first started working with our camp, I am amazed at the changes that have taken place. From three weeks at Camp Apple Acres we have grown to five weeks in the summer as well as a weekend mini camp throughout the year. Physical changes have taken place too with the construction of our own building at Sharing Meadows to include dorms and bathrooms for men and women, a full service kitchen, air conditioning in the two main rooms and of course, a swimming pool. Many of us have fond memories of Apple Acres with the cabins that didn't have electricity or water (flashlights were a must and batteries were at a premium!), the single bathroom in the lodge that served as a ladies and men's room according to which stick figure picture was hanging at the door (that was one of those ideas that worked better in theory than in practice!), and the heat and humidity that was conquered by playing water games. Our volunteer cooks made do with one stove and two refrigerators and somehow managed to keep everyone fed and happy. I can remember stopping each morning on my way to camp to buy fresh produce and bags of ice to keep everybody going. Now the food and supplies are delivered each week by a food wholesaler and the icemaker in the camp kitchen makes more than enough ice to keep everyone cool each day. During our time at Apple Acres we took a field trip to the Indiana Dunes each week for swimming in Lake Michigan, hiking the trails and a cookout. Everyone looked forward to Indiana Dunes day and even though it was a tremendous amount of work for the cooks to literally pack up everything they needed to prepare a meal for 40 or 50 people, they always did it willingly and cheerfully. Now we have a swimming pool next to the camp and cookouts are held on the veranda outside of the camp building or on the patio around the pool.

Even though Apple Acres was primitive compared to our camp and the staff had more struggles and challenges to see to the campers' needs, it was a great experience and one that will always be cherished. A few months ago I was talking with a young woman who worked as a camp counselor for several summers during her college years and she was full of enthusiasm for Share Foundation's camp because it meant so much to the campers and had a profound effect on her life in helping her to decide on a career path in social service. Now she is married and the mother of a 2 year old daughter and even though her days are busy, she told me she often thinks of her time at camp. I remember her as a compassionate, caring young woman with a great deal of energy and enthusiasm whether she was pushing a camper in a wheelchair, engaged in a quiet conversation or leading a song around the campfire. She spoke of the people she met, the good times they shared and how impressed she was that each camper was always treated with respect and dignity.

Yes, we have seen many changes over the years but some things will always remain the same. People on our staff are still compassionate, caring people and our campers continue to be treated with respect and dignity. As spring turns into summer, we look forward to another meaningful year of summer camp where everyone will be valued for who they are and be treated with respect and dignity!

FROM THE PEN OF FATHER BLANEY...

Father's Day happens this month. Sometimes I forget that I have fathered through Baptism many people. And there have been many weddings and 1st Communions. Always there is hope that the persons baptized or married or given their 1st Communions will continuously be graced by God to grow in goodness and kindness – that they are happy with their lives. A plumber immediately sees the results of his handiwork – the leak stops. The mechanic can hear the motor he's fixed is purring like a cat. But the priest rarely sees the good of his works. He just hopes for the good. Recently a lovely lady reminded me that she was the bride at my first wedding – the book I was reading from shook. She was very happy with her marriage. That was 45 years ago. And also recently a couple, obviously happy with each other, came by and reminded me that I had married them 40 years ago. It was a wonderful experience for me to see the good hoped for be confirmed so many years later.

Why not confirm your happiness in receiving a sacrament like marriage, Baptism, 1st Communion with the priest who assisted in that sacrament. Hope in people's goodness is a part of being a priest! A bit of confirmation that your life is better because of a sacrament received is a great help.

Happy Father's Day!

Thank you to the Knights of Columbus and the many people who worked on the annual Tootsie Roll Drive last month. Countless hours of volunteer service are needed to ensure the success of the drive and many people have faithfully given of themselves year after year. Funds raised go directly to agencies that serve other abled people and Share Foundation is grateful to receive money from various councils to subsidize our annual summer camp. A DIFFERENT TYPE OF PRAYER

Heavenly Father, help us remember that the jerk who cut us off in traffic last night is a single mother who worked nine hours that day and was rushing home to cook dinner, help with homework, do the laundry and spend a few precious moments with her children.

Help us to remember that the pierced, tattooed, disinterested young man who can't make change correctly is a worried 19-year-old college student, balancing his apprehension over final exams with his fear of not getting his student loans for next semester.

Remind us, Lord, that the scary looking bum, begging for money in the same spot every day (who really ought to get a job) is a slave to addictions that we can only imagine in our worst nightmares.

Help us to remember that the old couple walking annoyingly slow through the store aisles and blocking our shopping progress are savoring this moment, knowing that, based on the biopsy report she got back last week, this will be the last year that they go shopping together.

Heavenly Father, remind us each day that, of all the gifts you give us, the greatest gift is love. It is not enough to share that love with those we hold dear. Open our hearts not just to those who are close to us but to all humanity. Let us be slow to judgment and quick to forgiveness and patience and empathy and love.

Amen.
