FROM THE DESK OF FATHER BLANEY...

Happy Easter to All!

At Easter we celebrate the new life of Christ. At Christmas we celebrate the new life of Christ in a human body. At Easter there is a new life also. This new life is more spiritual. It is Christ living in us. He brings His good works to the world through, with and in us.

When we are baptized, or as sometimes it is called a Christening, we literally put on Christ. Then each of us shares in this new life of Christ. One might be capable of being helpful. Another might be capable of compassion – different aspects of Christ. The neighbor down the street who is always helpful may not be aware that he is doing the works of Christ. He just sees the need. He says yes to the quiet impulse to be helpful. That quiet impulse is the life of Christ in us. The helpful Harry is more busy – but his life is fuller. His life is filled with the life of Christ. There is peace of heart and a sense of fulfillment that makes life worth living

So it's Easter time – the thankful celebration of the new life of Christ in each of us. Think about the times you have said yes to those quiet impulses to do good. Resolve to say yes to those impulses more often.

Christ's new life is in us!

THOUGHTS FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

By Kathleen Kelly

Spring is always a welcome sight in northern Indiana but this year it will be especially welcome. The winter was long and cold, filled with snow and very little sunshine and it was a difficult season. The villagers were troopers all winter long, shoveling snow off the walks and porches, offering a helping hand when a friend was unsure walking on the ice covered pavement, and braving the bitter weather to take care of outside tasks that needed to be completed. The days were brightened by our maintenance man, Tom, who could be seen tossing snowballs at the villagers while dodging the snowballs they returned back to him amid shouts of glee.

Vocational training was held mostly indoors for the winter with the St. Tim Camp Building the center of activity. A pot of soup was made each week, filling the building with wonderful aromas and providing the entire community with a warm winter supper. Rugs were woven, black walnuts were cracked, and ceramics were painted and fired as they kept busy during the long winter days. A couple of new projects were started and the results are absolutely amazing!

Works of art created by our own villagers and stewards

My cousin was at a craft show when she saw some wine bottles that were painted with shamrocks – what else! – with small lights inside. She bought one for me and the longer I looked at it, the more convinced I was that the villagers could make the same thing. Father Blaney, always willing to help, volunteered to donate some empty wine bottles and the only thing we needed were some paints and strings of lights and we were in business. The villagers and stewards provided the artistic ideas and the bottles they have decorated are breathtakingly beautiful!

We now have a brand new product and each one is an original work of art! They are painted in a wide array of colors and decorated with an equally wide array of designs. Of course, we have some Irish bottles complete with shamrocks and we also have flowers, hearts, and other beautiful designs to light up your homes. The price is only $20 and they make a perfect gift – for birthdays, anniversaries or Mother’s Day! Come to the St. Timothy Center and browse in our gift shop so you can see for yourself these one of a kind artistic beauties.

The villagers took a long cold winter and made the most of it by learning a new skill and offering it for sale to help support their own residential program. I’m proud of their efforts and I know you will be impressed with their talents. Celebrate the arrival of spring by lighting up your home with one of our new wine bottle lights. Come to see them in person or call the office at 219-778-2585 to place your order today.

Happy spring to all!

SPAGHETTI DINNER

Mardi Gras was celebrated by villagers, friends and families alike at the annual Fat Tuesday Spaghetti Dinner hosted by the Marquette Council of the Knights of Columbus in Griffith. Jim Fitt, one of the Knights, chaired the event and led his crew in preparing and serving delicious spaghetti topped with homemade meat sauce, fresh tossed salad and garlic bread. Topping off the meal was an amazing assortment of delectable desserts organized by villager mom Jean Pickett and her sister Iola Blyth. Many people contributed their own special baked goods to provide a tasty sweet treat for our guest’s enjoyment.

Jim Fitt serves a plate of food to one of our guests

The crowd was large and enthusiastic and all came in support of Share Foundation’s work. The Griffith Knights of Columbus have been faithful in sponsoring this event each year with all proceeds going to support the residential program at Sharing Meadows.

Thanks to Jim Fitt and his hard working crew for a job well done and thanks to all of you who came and supported us on the Lenten Eve!

HOW ABOUT YOU!

It has been a couple of months since we first discussed estate planning. How about you? Have you renewed your estate plan since then? How about you? If you don't have an estate plan yet, have you made arrangements to begin one, or have you finished yours yet? There is still time for you to do so, because if you are reading this, you still have the capacity to do your estate plan.

IMPORTANT NOTE: Congress has not yet acted on the Federal Estate Tax situation. There is no Federal Estate Tax on anyone's estate, no matter the size, if you die in 2010. However, if the law is not changed and you die in 2011, with an estate over $1,000,000, the tax due on the amount in excess of $1 Million is 55%. It might be wise to plan while you can.

Let's talk about Wills because many people have the wrong idea about them. Many believe that if they make a Will that is all that needs to be done and the people named in it will receive everything. That could not be further from the truth. First, a Will affects only those assets in your name alone at your death. Anything you own jointly with another person, anything in which you have named a beneficiary, these assets will go to that person(s) no matter what your Will says.

Second, your Will has no real value as a legal binding document until it is admitted to probate by the Court that has jurisdiction over your assets. Unless the attorney who prepared your Will knows how to instruct you to title your assets, your estate will go through the process of a probate administration. Many people have heard horror stories about probate administration in Court. It doesn't have to be that way. If you pick the proper Personal Representative (Executor/Executrix) to handle your affairs and they hire a knowledgeable, experienced attorney, this can help minimize time and problems in handling your Estate.

You must be a competent adult to be able to execute a valid Will. Ordinarily you sign it in the presence of two witnesses who watch you sign it and then they sign it in the presence of all of you. Notarization does not make it a valid Will. This is the normal way it should be done. Do not deviate from this format, unless you are looking for trouble.

Your Will directs who is to receive your assets when you die. If you are married, it would be your Spouse. If you are not married, it would be your Children, if you have any, or other Relatives and Friends. You should also plan on who receives your assets if the first person(s) dies before you do. For example, if your Spouse predeceases you, you would probably want his/her share to go to your Children. You should also plan if the second tier of heirs dies before you. If a Child/Relative/Friend dies before you do, does their share go to their Children, or to someone else? If they are under 18 years of age, then you should create a Trust for them in your Will. This is called a Testamentary Trust. You name the Trustee to handle their money for the health, education, maintenance and support of the minor Child. You then state the age they can actually begin taking over the ownership of their share. For example, 25% when they reach 25 and the balance at 30.

As you can see, there is a lot of versatility to what can be done with a Will. There is only one person that you MUST leave something to in your Will and that is your Spouse. If you fail to do this, most States give the Spouse the right to take the share given to him/her by law from your Estate. So, don't even think about it, because it will complicate the administration of your Estate and incur additional unnecessary attorney's fees. On the other hand, you can disinherit anyone else in the world. If you want to disinherit a Child, or someone else, you can do so. You do not owe an obligation to leave any assets to anyone else besides your Spouse. However, be careful how you disinherit someone. Absolutely do not leave them $1. Simply say that you make no provision for any other heir. You do not have to give any reason for doing so.

Thus far, we have talked about leaving all of your Estate to someone, or some group of people. You can also make specific distributions as well. You can leave each Grandchild $2,000, $3,000, or whatever amount you want. You can do the same for a favorite relative or friend.

More importantly, you can also leave something to a charity. That includes the SHARE FOUNDATION WITH THE HANDICAPPED. You can designate how this is to be used, or you can simply provide that it is to be added to Share's Endowment Fund. If you have a Child at Share, you need to think about providing for their needs when you are no longer here. There are many ways that can be done, and a provision in your Will is one.

If you have a Spouse who is facing going into a Nursing Home and will be attempting to qualify for Medicaid, consult a Medicaid Planning Attorney. Among the things he/she can do for you is to create a Testamentary Special Needs Trust for your Spouse. Upon your death, your Spouse will not lose their Medicaid eligibility with this type of Trust. We'll talk more about these Trusts in later editions.

Finally, if you have minor Children, or an incapacitated adult Child, you can name a Guardian who is to oversee their care and finances. This is extremely important if you are trying to place a Child at Share. That person can begin the process of qualifying them, and if they qualify, Father Blaney will be able to oversee their care.

You may have some specific questions or topics that you would like addressed. If so, email them to: share@sharefoundation.org.

FLORIDA GOLF OUTING

The weather was warm and sunny, smiles were bright, and the golfers were ready for a challenging game at the second annual Florida Golf Outing held at the Tides Golf Course in Seminole. There were more participants this year including some Indiana snowbirds that joined in the fun. Father Blaney had the privilege of playing one hole with each foursome and a good time was had by all. The round of golf was followed by a chicken dinner complete with food, fellowship and a few golf stories!

Proceeds from the event went to Share Foundation and we are delighted to report that the proceeds doubled from last year! Many thanks to Karen Galinowski and Roger & Ann Crutchfield for organizing the outing and taking care of all the details to ensure that our guests would have a good time. We hope to see this event grow each year so if you'll be in Florida next winter, put this on your list!

THE WEARIN' OF THE GREEN

'Twas a great day for the Irish at the annual St. Patrick's Day celebration at Sharing Meadows on Sunday, March 14. Father Blaney began the celebration with a Mass followed by a traditional Irish dinner of corned beef and cabbage with all the trimmings. Once everyone had their fill of the delicious food, the entertainment began with delightful Irish music by Kevin Doolin and his lovely daughter, Colleen Doolin Lustina interspersed with Irish jokes. The room was filled with green clothing and the mood was lively as each Irish joke was told followed by Irish songs and the crowd agreed that there's no celebration finer than an Irish one.

MOTHER'S DAY MEMORIALS

This coming month we will have a section in the GOOD NEWS in honor of all of the mothers, mothers-in-laws, grandmothers, sisters, and aunts – either living or deceased — who have a special place in your hearts. You can thank your mother for the blessings in your life by writing a personal message that will be printed in the Mother's Day section of the May newsletter. There will be a section to remember deceased mothers and one to honor living mothers. This is truly a special way to honor the ladies with a meaningful gift that will help other abled people.

Memorials must be received in our office no later than Thursday, April 15th for inclusion in the May issue. Thank you for choosing to honor your mother this way!

MEMORIALS

Memorials are a special way to honor the memory of a loved one or celebrate a special occasion for ourselves, our family, or our friends. We are grateful for all memorial donations, large and small, that are received but we want to remind you that our policy is that thank you letters and acknowledgement cards are not sent for any memorials received that are less than $10.00 per name. They will be printed in the GOOD NEWS but no cards or letters will be sent. Due to the increasing cost of paper, postage and time to send cards and letters, it is not good stewardship to spend the donations you have entrusted to us to fill mailboxes with mail.

Memorial donations of $10.00 or more per name will continue to be handled with a thank you letter, acknowledgement to family and listing in the newsletter. If you do not require a thank you letter, please mark the envelope so that we can code your account and we can save the cost of a letter and use the funds for our programs for other abled people. Thank you for your understanding!

MEMORIAL DEADLINE

Just a friendly reminder that all memorials are due by the 15th of each month in order to be printed in the following month's GOOD NEWS. For example, if you want to have a memorial printed in the May issue, your memorial needs to arrive in our office by April 15th. Share Foundation has a deadline to meet as well with our printer and if we do not have your memorial by the 15th of each month, your memorial will be delayed an additional month. Thank you for your understanding!
